

THE U.S. COAST GUARD AUXILIARY

Is the uniformed volunteer component of the U.S. Coast Guard. Auxiliarists are members of TEAM COAST GUARD (active duty, reserve, auxiliary, and civilians).

Auxiliarists focus on promoting recreational boating safety.

You can find yourself on a patrol saving lives and property, assisting in marine safety and environmental protection, radio watchstanding, educating the public in boating safety, and much more.

What's AUXSCOUT

Sea Scouts BSA is the official youth program of the U.S. Coast Guard Auxiliary

Sea Scouts can join the Auxiliary at age 14

Sea Scout youth and adults who become Auxiliary members have full access to Auxiliary training, and can serve in a wide range of Auxiliary missions and leadership roles

Staff officers in Auxiliary districts, divisions, and flotillas promote and support the AUXSCOUT program

Local Auxiliary flotillas or divisions can charter Sea Scout Ships

Sea Scout youth and adults who are not Auxiliarists are welcome to participate as guests in flotilla meetings and Auxiliary missions

HOW CAN SEA SCOUT SHIPS CONNECT WITH THE AUXILIARY

The Auxiliary's local units are called "flotillas." An Auxiliary division consists of several flotillas

Contact the flotilla commander in an Auxiliary flotilla near you. Some flotillas have AUXSCOUT staff officers (FSO-AS) who are trained to help.

Plan to attend a flotilla meeting to learn what the Auxiliary does

Ask if the flotilla is willing to provide training for your Ship

Training with the Auxiliary helps Sea Scouts with their advancement and prepares those interested in Coast Guard careers

35% of Sea Scouts are interested in maritime careers. The Auxiliary can introduce them to this career path

Sea Scouts can enroll in the Auxiliary to take full advantage of all Auxiliary training

Involvement with the Auxiliary enhances a Sea Scout's college or job applications
